Commonwealth Bank Nepalese Children's Talent Night 2015

Nepalese Australian Associations (NAA) is going to organise its second "Nepalese Children's Talent Night" on Saturday the 23rd of May 2015 at Sydney University Wallace Theatre at 5pm.

The Commonwealth Bank Nepalese Children's Talent Night 2015:

- Will feature guest artists, Nepalese Singers Hemant Sharma and popular youth singer Prem Pariyar.
- Is a community platform where children of the people of Nepalese origin can showcase their various talents to their family, friends and the community.
- Is managed and run by participating children of our community.
- Is supported by the entire Nepalese Australian community, parents, local businesses, community organisations.
- Will be attended by the members of Australian community and media organisations.
- Aims to promote our rich culture and tradition beyond Nepalese community.
- Will raise funds and provide learning opportunities to underprivileged children in remote parts of Nepal.
- Will be regularly promoted by local community media Nepali Times, Nepali Patra, Nepali Vision, MN Television, Nepal News Australia, SBS Radio, Nepali Awaj and Himalayan Radio.

NAA encourages all children under the age 18 or attending high school and their parents to register their interest at www.naa.org.au.
